Homework #2 is in today's mail.

Remember these important things about homework:

- You have until Friday to turn it in.
- Go over it with your child and correct any misconceptions.
- Students will receive one reading and one math grade from this homework.
- If you sign and acknowledge that you checked over it, your child will receive a buckle buck to spend at our upcoming store.

Parent-Teacher Conferences

Please begin calling Miss Tiffany to schedule your conference. I would love to meet with you, especially if you have concerns.
